Our mission

Thierry de Montbrial

Founder and Chairman of the WPC

Founded in 2008, the World Policy Conference (WPC) is dedicated to helping promote a world that is more open, more prosperous and fairer. This requires an unremitting effort, to understand the actual forces at play and the interactions between them, as well as to explore non-aggressive ways of adapting how States connect with each other at all levels, while respecting the culture and fundamental interests of each nation.

The annual meeting of the WPC is restricted in size so that participants can create lasting bonds with one another. It brings together leading figures from all five continents – political and business leaders, academics and journalists – in a spirit of tolerance that is the only one conducive to the pursuit of the common good. Beyond the participants, this meeting aims to help all populations affected in a time of constant upheaval.

Among the WPC guests

H.S.H. Prince Albert II (Sovereign Prince of Monaco), H.R.H. Prince Turki Al-Faisal (Chairman of the KFCRIS), Khaldoon Al Mubarak (President of the Executive Affairs Authority), Sheikh Abdullah bin Nasser bin Khalifa Al-Thani (PM of the State of Qatar), Prince Faisal bin Farhan Al Saud (Minister of Foreign Affairs of Saudi Arabia), Ban Ki-moon (SG of the UN), Ehud Barak (Deputy PM and Minister of Defense of Israel), Serge Ekué (President of the West African Development Bank), Heinz Fischer (President of the Republic of Austria), Fu Ying (Vice Minister of Foreign Affairs of the People's Republic of China), Robert Gates (Former US Secretary of Defense), Abdullah Gül (President of the Republic of Turkey), Angel Gurría (SG of the OECD), Mo Ibrahim (Chairman of Mo Ibrahim Foundation), Toomas Hendrik Ilves (President of the Republic of Estonia), Dmytro Kuleba (Minister of Foreign Affairs of Ukraine), Haruhiko Kuroda (President of ADB), Pascal Lamy (DG of the WTO), Dmitry Medvedev (President of the Russian Federation), Mario Monti (PM of Italy), Amr Moussa (SG of the League of Arab States), Joseph Nye (Distinguished Service Professor of the Harvard Kennedy School of Government), Alassane Ouattara (President of the Republic of Côte d'Ivoire), Park Geun-Hye (President of the Republic of Korea), Mary Robinson (Former President of Ireland), Herman van Rompuy (President of the European Council), Nicolas Sarkozy (President of the French Republic), Jean-Claude Trichet (President of the ECB), Paul Kagame (President of the Republic of Rwanda), Kevin Rudd (26th PM of Australia), Josep Borrell Fontelles (Vice President of the European Commission), Louise Mushikiwabo (Secretary General of the International Organisation of La Francophonie).

Appreciations

Japan and China, Japan and Korea cannot tackle issues through bilateral talks and negotiations. There has to be someone - the US, or even better, the WPC, this objective so-called "third-track" forum - to intervene and talk to us and them.

Yukio Okamoto

The WPC has been one of the first of that kind of geopolitical important forums where leaders have considered two not-that fashionable issues: the importance of the religious facts in geopolitics and Africa.

Lionel Zinsou

I come here very happy because I know I am going to hear different voices than the ones I hear typically at home, hear various views represented from all over the world, from folks who have both a lot of knowledge and a lot of experience.

John Lipsky

I like the size: it is not a very small conference, but it is not a huge one either; one gets to discuss things in some depth, not just during the sessions but also during social moments. I like the fact that it lasts two and a half-almost three-days.

Kemal Derviş

Today those who had faith in this adventure in 2008, who believed the WPC would continue through the years with brilliance and distinction, are delighted. And the best is yet to come.

Nasser Bourita

It is an extremely useful forum, particularly since this is one of the few conferences where you have a real bilingual approach, therefore coming together French and English, European and American attitudes.

Jim Hoagland

The World Police Conference is a truly multinational global conference. I think that has been the very unique nature of the WPC from its beginning.

Lee Hye Min

I think it is a good gathering because the theme of global governance, even though it sounds horribly wonky, sits atop something that is now deeply real for us all.

Kevin Rudd

The WPC is becoming an institution. It is always a pleasure to come and discuss the world's issues, not just problems, but strategies. It is a great time to exchange experiences and share challenges and solutions to all the world's problems.

Aminata Touré

The whole conference was imbued with a sense of honesty and sincerity. You managed to create a dense and diversified agenda and you invited panelists who knew how to captivate the audience. The conference venue was very comfortable and the logistical organization impeccable.

Karl Brauner
